Help crime victims understand and exercise their constitutional and statutory rights within the criminal justice system! Learn about victims’ rights in Wisconsin and how victims can assert their rights in court if a violation is occurring or is imminent.

Featuring Meg Garvin, M.A., J.D

Ms. Garvin is a recognized leading expert on crime victims’ rights. She is the Executive Director of the National Crime Victim Law Institute (NCVLI) and a clinical professor of law at Lewis & Clark Law School. Ms. Garvin has extensive experience litigating victims’ rights throughout the country. She will highlight common victims’ rights issues using case studies and sample motions to discuss how victims’ rights can be asserted during the criminal justice process.
