The CREO Honors: Juried Student Exhibition showcases the work of Mount Mary University Art & Design students. The exhibit features student work completed in the previous academic year, juried by invited professionals from the greater Wisconsin art and design community. The jurors choose the art & design selections. Open to all students actively engaged in Mount Mary University Art & Design studio courses.

Eligibility

Any Mount Mary student artist or designer can submit work that was created in a Mount Mary University studio course between Fall Semester 2012-Spring Semester 2014. Students may submit up to 3 pieces in each category, but all works need to be unique from one another. Categories include: Art, Fashion Illustration, Graphic Design, and Interior Design.

Exhibit Date: Friday, May 9 from noon to 10 p.m.

Presentation Standards

Work should be professionally presented to the jurors, but it does not have to be framed.

- Consider a mat or mounting board for your work for the juror.
- Select your strongest work for form and content.

If the work is accepted, final presentation standards, including framing, will need to be met for inclusion in CREO. If work does not fit presentation standards it can be eliminated from display. There is a negotiated MMU student discount with Manders Picture Framing on 92nd and Burleigh.

- Works on paper must be framed with a white mat, black frame, under glass, with a hanging wire. This includes: drawing, photography, graphic design work, illustration work, etc.
- Paintings and frames must have hanging wire (no sawtooth hangers).
- Design boards on black or white foamcore, submitted with two binder clips.
- Sculpture must be ready for installation.
- Any entries that require AV equipment must be presented with the equipment needed to view work.
