Lynn Sprangers Named Vice President at Mount Mary College

MILWAUKEE, WI (June 4, 2012) – Mount Mary College President Eileen Schwalbach, Ph.D announced today that Lynn Sprangers has been appointed Vice President for Communications & Community Engagement. Sprangers joined Mount Mary in 2011 as Executive in Residence for Women’s Leadership. The new VP position was developed in response to the increased visibility of the College as it nears its 100th Anniversary and launches its new brand identity in 2013. Sprangers will oversee seven marketing and public relations staff that provide marketing and advertising, external communications, media relations, special events, web and social media, and facilities rental services for the College. She and her department will continue to work closely with the Development and Enrollment teams on future marketing initiatives.

As Vice President for Communications & Community Engagement, Sprangers will serve on the College’s executive leadership council with President Schwalbach; Donna Gastevich, Vice President for External Relations; Reyes Gonzalez, Vice President for Administration and Finance/CFO; David Nixon, Vice President for Academic and Student Affairs; Sister Joan Penzenstadler, SSND, Vice President for Mission and Identity; and, David Wegener, Vice President for Enrollment Services.

“Lynn’s proven commitment to Mount Mary’s mission and her demonstrated leadership makes her uniquely qualified to serve the College in this new capacity,” stated President Schwalbach. “We’re excited to see how she will bring her talent and experience to this important new function.”

Sprangers, an active leader and mentor for women and girls in the Milwaukee community, created a scholarship at Mount Mary in memory of her friend, and WTMJ-TV colleague, Lynise Weeks. Weeks passed away in 2005 after a valiant battle against kidney disease and represented a strong role model in the community for women and girls.
