FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mount Mary College Marian Gallery to Open Photography Exhibit

Exhibit features still life and nature photographs

MILWAUKEE (February 28, 2012) – “Mindscape – The True, The Good, The Beautiful,” an exhibit featuring photography by Yong-ran Zhu, will be on display Sunday, March 4, 2012 through Saturday, March 24, 2012 in the College’s Marian Art Gallery. An artist’s opening reception will take place Sunday, March 4, 2012 from 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. The event is free and open to the public.

Approximately 35 still life and nature photographs by Yong-ran Zhu will be on display. The exhibit’s theme – “The True, The Good, The Beautiful” – refers to a Chinese art guideline that Yong-ran Zhu closely follows in his practice. Yong-ran Zhu trained under Ansel Adams’ assistant John Sexton and incorporates both classic and digital tools into his work.

Marian Gallery is located on the first floor of Caroline Hall at 2900 N. Menomonee River Parkway and is open Monday – Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. and 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Mount Mary College, founded in 1913 by the School Sisters of Notre Dame, was Wisconsin’s first four-year, degree-granting Catholic college for women. Located on an 80-acre campus in Milwaukee, the College offers more than 30 undergraduate majors for women and eight graduate programs for women and men. Mount Mary also emphasizes study abroad, service learning, and social justice initiatives. Its nearly 1900 students enjoy small class sizes (average 15) and over 90 percent of full-time students receive financial aid or scholarships. Through classroom instruction and community service, Mount Mary develops women to be leaders in their professions and their communities, serving as role models to inspire achievement in others.
