Accelerated Programs

Mount Mary College's accelerated programs are designed to prepare you for personal growth and a more rewarding professional career by developing your leadership abilities and enhancing your decision-making skills.

Mount Mary understands the complexities of the working woman's schedule. We have developed our accelerated programs so you can complete your coursework at convenient times. Our campus near Hwy 45 and I-94 is centrally located, affording you an easy commute from work, to class, to home.

Accelerated Program Format

Accelerated courses are offered in five terms with each course meeting one night a week or Saturdays for eight weeks. Mount Mary's accelerated programs are not cohort programs, giving you the flexibility to work through the program at the pace that matches your schedule. Terms begin in:

- January
- March
- June
- August
- October

You can combine accelerated courses with regular semester courses. Mount Mary offers regular semester courses in a variety of formats, including day, evening, Saturday, and online. Financial aid may be available if you enroll in consecutive terms.

Admission Requirements

Accelerated courses are open to students who hold a high school diploma or GED certificate and meet the following criteria:

- Five years since high school graduation
- Two years of full-time work experience or the equivalent, not counting work while a full-time student
- Completion of appropriate mathematical and writing competency through assessment testing, course completion, or the equivalent courses in transfer from another college

Some exceptions may apply.

To earn a degree, each student must complete a total of 128 credits, either taken at Mount Mary College or a combination of Mount Mary credits and credits accepted in transfer. Only 64 credits earned at a two-year institution can be transferred to Mount Mary College.

Accelerated Programs of Study

Mount Mary offers accelerated programs in:

Business Administration

The business administration major prepares women for managerial positions and advanced education by developing skills in effective communication and logical problem solving.

Business/Professional Communication

The business/professional communication major was developed in consultation with area businesses and emphasizes the combination of a business background with well-developed written, oral, and interpersonal communication skills.

Liberal Studies

The liberal studies program offers women who hold an associate degree from an accredited technical college the opportunity to complete a bachelor of arts degree. In this degree-completion program, students complete a 64-credit major in liberal studies which includes courses in the sciences and humanities. Students also complete a concentration in an area they are interested in and that matches their career goals.
