

Advising Guide
MOUNT MARY COLLEGE
MS PROGRAM IN COUNSELING

School Counseling Concentration PLUS LPC OPTION

(For students interested in pursuing the school counseling degree PLUS eligibility for LPC status in Wisconsin)
63 credit hours

Assessment and Development: 9 credits

- _____ CON 630 Behavioral Science Statistics and Research
- _____ CON 720 Counseling Assessment and Program Evaluation
- _____ CON 750 Counseling across the Lifespan

Counseling Core: 21 credits

- _____ CON 600 Professional Identity & Ethics
- _____ CON 601 Orientation to School Counseling (0 credits)
- _____ CON 610 Theories of Counseling
- _____ CON 611 Career Development
- _____ CON 612 Techniques of Counseling
- _____ CON 700 Multicultural Counseling
- _____ CON 740 Group Procedures in Counseling
- _____ CON 741 Family Systems Theory, Research and Practice
- _____ CON 770 Psychopathology

School Counseling Concentration: 12 credits

- _____ CON 712 Counseling Children and Adolescents
- _____ CON 730 Counseling in Schools
- _____ CON 785 Advanced Issues in Clinical Mental Health Counseling
- _____ CON 795 Supervised Practicum (Community placement)
- _____ CON 796 Internship I (School placement)
- _____ CON 797 Internship II (School placement)
- _____ CON 796 Internship I (Community placement)
- _____ CON 797 Internship II (Community placement)

Elective Courses: 6 credits

- _____ EDU 703 Exceptional Learners (Required for students who are not certified as Wisconsin teachers)
- _____ EDU 742 Instructional Strategies (Required for students who are not certified as Wisconsin teachers)

For Certified teachers, 6 credits of electives must be selected upon consultation with your academic advisor in place of EDU 703 & EDU 742

Please consult attached list of electives for School Counseling Concentration

All courses are 3 credits unless stated otherwise.

Exit/Graduation requirements: Completion of a School Counselor Portfolio, passing score on the Praxis II exam, and comps exam or thesis.

Reviewed with Student:

Advisor: _____
Student: _____

Date: _____