

Mount Mary College Master of Science in Occupational Therapy

The emphasis in the post professional master's is on critiquing the use of occupation-based, client-centered knowledge in practice, reflecting about the usefulness of professional evidence and on directing one's own professional growth. During this year students use clinical experiences as examples for course work that is completed via the Internet.

Summer

- OCT 710 Research in Occupational Therapy 3 Credits
June – July
Complete a literature search on a topic related to practice.
- OCT 780 Independent Study 3 Credits
Directed readings on a topics related to project or preferred practice

Fall

- OCT 720 Theory and Practice 3 credits
August – October
Enhance treatment effectiveness through clinical reasoning.
- OCT 722 Issues and Problems in Health Care
October – December
Identify quality and delivery issues in preferred practice area.
- OCT 790 Research Seminar 3 credits
October – December
Compile a literature review on a case study client.
- OCT 780 Independent Study 3 Credits
Directed readings on a topics related to project or preferred practice

Spring

- OCT 700 Perspectives on Occupation 3 credits
January – March
Develop personal model for preferred practice area
- OCT 795 Project / Thesis 3 credits
January – May
Write up case study, literature review and implications for practice
- OCT 724 Multicultural Health Care 3 Credits
March – May
Enhance practice with persons from diverse cultures
- OCT 734 Leadership 3 credits
March – May
Develop plan for advocacy and leadership in preferred practice area