Room and Board

Room and board charges are refundable when a student withdraws from the college based on the schedule for tuition refunds for regular programs.

If a student decides not to live in the residence hall after submitting an application and security deposit, cancellation must be stated in writing to the Office of Residence Life. The postmark date of a letter requesting cancellation will be considered the cancellation request date. The date of receipt will be used for cancellation letters that are hand delivered personally to the Office of Residence Life. For residents with current housing contracts, the $100 security deposit will be refunded only if the cancellation request form is received prior to June 15 for the fall semester and December 1 for the spring semester. For new residents, the $100 security deposit will be refunded according to the full semester programs refund schedule indicated in this document.

Security deposits will be returned (if warranted) to current students who leave Caroline Hall. In-person requests for cancellation must be made to the Office of Residence Life and a contract cancellation form must be completed. The room security deposit is returned minus deductions for property damage, unusual cleaning charges, assessed fines, or outstanding fees, or the deposit will be transferred toward the next year's residence. If the student has a balance due to the college, the security deposit will not be refunded until the student's account is paid in full. Forfeiture of the deposit will be automatic if the student leaves during the semester, after the assigned invoices for the new period have gone out, or if dismissed. For additional room cancellation information, please refer to the Housing Contract available online <http://www.mtmary.edu/residencelife.htm>.
