

COURSE SCHEDULE AND TUITION/FUNDING – Cohort 9, 2012-2014

All teachers enrolled in the UEFP are also enrolled as AmeriCorps Members. Upon successful completion of each year of service (teaching and service learning components) members will receive education award vouchers to assist with tuition. AmeriCorps Education Awards are expected for both years of the program. If federal funds are not available during the UEFP program, it is important that the applicants clearly understand and accept the responsibility for tuition costs.

SCHEDULE:

June 2012 – July 2012

The seven week summer school program is full-time Monday through Friday. Participants teach students in the mornings and take course work in the afternoons. Six credits college course work (child development, psychology of teaching and learning).

August 2012 – June 2013

Hired as a full time teacher in one of our independent private, parochial or charter partner schools. Twelve credits continued course work (reading/language arts, math, social studies, science methods, culturally responsive teaching) one evening per week and alternate weekends.

Summer 2013

Nine credits continued course work (health and movement, reading, action research).

August 2013 – June 2014

Full time teaching in same school. Twelve credits continued course work (instructional strategies, action research, culturally responsive teaching).

Summer 2014

Nine credits continued course work (curriculum and assessment, teacher leadership).
