Attention Students, Faculty, Administration and Staff

What To Do If You Have The Flu!

If you are experiencing flu-like symptoms and will not report to class or to work:

Commuter Students

- Contact the faculty instructor for each of your classes (either by phone or e-mail) to report your absence. (Faculty contact information can be found on your course syllabi.)
- Notify Student Affairs at 414-256-1211.
- If you work on campus, contact your Mount Mary work supervisor to report your absence.
- Follow the guidelines for minimizing the transmission of the virus outlined at <http://cdc.gov/h1n1flu/sick.htm>
- If your symptoms persist or worsen, seek medical attention.

Resident Students

- Contact the faculty instructor for each of your classes (either by phone or e-mail) to report your absence. (Faculty contact information can be found on your course syllabi.)
- Also notify:
 - Beth Schoenwetter, Coordinator of Residence Life, at schoenwb@mtmary.edu or 414-256-0169
- If you work on campus, contact your Mount Mary work supervisor to report your absence.
- Follow the guidelines for minimizing the transmission of the virus outlined at <http://cdc.gov/h1n1flu/sick.htm>
- If your symptoms persist or worsen, seek medical attention.

Administrators and Staff Members

- Contact your immediate supervisor to report your absence.
- Follow the guidelines for minimizing the transmission of the virus outlined at <http://cdc.gov/h1n1flu/sick.htm>
- If your symptoms persist or worsen, seek medical attention.

Faculty (full-time and part-time)

- Contact your Department Chair, who will inform the Registrar's Office and the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs' Office that you will be absent.
- If possible, e-mail students in your class to notify them of the class cancellation. (Use mymtmary.edu to do this easily.)
- For 8:00 a.m. class only, please notify the Assistant to the Provost (moebusj@mtmary.edu) in addition to your Department Chair.
- Faculty are expected to hold all scheduled classes, unless the College has officially closed.

If your illness is confirmed as H1N1 Influenza or if you know of a confirmed case on campus:

- Contact Student Affairs, 414-256-1211.
- Follow the guidelines for minimizing the transmission of the virus outlined at <http://cdc.gov/h1n1flu/sick.htm>
- Those with confirmed cases should follow the guidance of their healthcare professional with regard to treatment and return to work or school.
