Mount Mary College Welcomes New Board of Trustees Members

MILWAUKEE (January 4, 2010) – Two new members have joined Mount Mary College’s Board of Trustees, President Eileen Schwalbach announced. Board members each serve a three-year term.

Gary Jorgensen of Milwaukee, WI is Chairman of VJS Construction Services. Jorgensen has many years of service to Mount Mary. He completed nine years of service as a Trustee in 2008 including serving as Chair of the Buildings and Grounds Committee. Previously, he served a term on the Board of Trustees from 1994-1997 as well as on the Board of Governors from 1987-1994.

Jorgensen actively serves the community through positions on the boards of Rogers Memorial Hospital and Skylight Opera Theater. He also served on the boards of Journey House and Neighborhood House. Jorgensen served his profession with positions on the national board of Associated General Contractors of America and 25 years on the board of Associated General Contractors of Greater Milwaukee, Wisconsin's largest construction industry trade association. The organization honored him in 2007 with their Community Service Award and in 2001 for Outstanding Contribution to the industry.

Marie O'Brien of Nashotah, WI is a graduate of Mount Mary College with a B.A. in Business and Professional Communications. She is President and CEO of Enterforce, a Managed Service Provider (MSP), which in 2008 was named the number four fastest growing women-led business in North America by Entrepreneur[®].

O'Brien was awarded the WE Energies five pointed S.T.A.R. Excellence Award in 2008 for Customer Satisfaction and in 2009 for Cost Reduction. She received the Harley-Davidson Diversity Award in 2006, 2007, and 2008 for results in “turning supplier diversity initiatives from thought into action.”

O'Brien is committed to volunteerism and the role of women in business. She serves as secretary of the Board of Directors of Women’s Club of Wisconsin, and the Woman’s Club of Wisconsin Foundation. A cancer survivor, she supports several cancer research and awareness activities. She is a member of the President’s Council for IMPACT, Inc., a human service agency, a member of the Board at Waukesha Catholic Memorial High School (her alma mater), and an active supporter of the Sharon Lynn Wilson Center.

Mount Mary College, founded in 1913 by the School Sisters of Notre Dame, was Wisconsin’s first four-year, degree-granting Catholic college for women. Located on an 80-acre campus in Milwaukee, the College offers more than 60 undergraduate areas of study for women and seven graduate programs for women and men. Mount Mary also emphasizes study abroad, service learning, and social justice initiatives. Its more than 1,900 students enjoy small class sizes (average 14) and 90 percent of full-time students receive financial aid or scholarships. Through classroom instruction and community service, Mount Mary develops women to be leaders in their professions and their communities, serving as role models to inspire achievement in others.
