Mount Mary College Welcomes New Corporate Board Members

MILWAUKEE (July 29, 2010) – Three new members have joined Mount Mary College’s Corporate Board, President Eileen Schwalbach announced. The Corporate Board has oversight of Mount Mary’s Board of Trustees including responsibility for governance matters, financial decisions and institutional leadership. Board members each serve a three-year term. The new members are:

Sister Sara Jean Donegan, SSND – A professed member of the School Sisters of Notre Dame since 1957, S. Donegan has a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Mathematics and minors in Chemistry and English from Mount Mary College. She has a Doctor of Dental Surgery from Marquette University and an MS and certificate in prosthodontics from Marquette University School of Dentistry. She currently practices as a dentist and instructor in Marquette University's Dental School.

Sister Carole Shinnick, SSND – A professed member of the School Sisters of Notre Dame since 1962 has bachelors in English from College of the Sacred Heart, Puerto Rico and an MA in American Studies from Fairfield University. She also has a MSW in Clinical Social Work from Saint Louis University. S. Carole coordinates Emmaus Leadership Services in Silver Spring, MD, a program providing ongoing formation opportunities to leaders of women religious.

Sister Ann Scholz, SSND – A professed member of the School Sisters of Notre Dame since 1972, S. Scholz holds a bachelors degree in History from Notre Dame College in St. Louis, and a MA and PhD in International Education from the American University in Washington, D.C. A SSND representative to the United Nations, she has testified regarding the right to education and its importance to social transformation. She has also authored numerous statements to various UN Commissions on issues including the right to education, gender equality, and the human rights of girls.

Mount Mary College, founded in 1913 by the School Sisters of Notre Dame, was Wisconsin’s first four-year, degree-granting Catholic college for women. Located on an 80-acre campus in Milwaukee, the College offers more than 60 undergraduate areas of study for women and seven graduate programs for women and men. Mount Mary also emphasizes study abroad, service learning, and social justice initiatives. Its more than 1,900 students enjoy small class sizes (average 14) and 95 percent of full-time students receive financial aid or scholarships. Through classroom instruction and community service, Mount Mary develops women to be leaders in their professions and their communities, serving as role models to inspire achievement in others.
