Assistant Professor (2 Positions Available)

Mount Mary College, Wisconsin's first Catholic college for women, is seeking two (2) individuals to contribute to the realization of our mission through the roles of full-time, tenure track Assistant professors in the Fashion department, to begin in fall 2010. The instructors will teach undergraduate courses in 3 or more of the following areas: textiles, textile design (Lectra Kaledo), machine knitting, fashion show coordination, retail management, buying and assortment planning, advanced patternmaking and construction (Optitex), fashion illustration, design process, portfolio development, or Adobe Photoshop and Illustrator.

Responsibilities will include working as a team member in developing curriculum, recruiting students, representing the department; fostering industry relationships and developing cooperative projects and competition participation within the curriculum; actively engaging in creative scholarship in the department, at the college and in professional organizations, serving on department and college committees and advising and mentoring undergraduate majors. Applicants should have: a Ph.D. or master's plus industry experience, a passion for teaching, a record of professional involvement, experience in computer technology, excellent communication skills and the potential to grow into leadership responsibilities. Mount Mary College is an equal opportunity employer encouraging members of minority groups, women, and individuals with disabilities to apply. For application information, go to: www.mtmary.edu/employment.html.

Mount Mary College practices equal opportunity employment as part of our ongoing commitment to diversity in our workplace. Preference will be given to applicants who submit all materials prior to January 31, 2010, but the process will continue until the position is filled. For confidential consideration, please send a letter of application, curriculum vitae, and 3 letters of recommendation to:
